

CREATIVE WRITING FOR THE MEDIA PROGRAM

2009 APPLICATION

Complete this application and return it to the Radio/Television/Film Department Office (Annie May Swift Hall, 1920 Campus Dr. Rm. 217) along with the signed CWMP Statement by 12:00 PM, FRIDAY APRIL 10. Semifinalists will be notified by Friday, April 24. After interviews, finalists will be notified by Friday, May 1.

Include with this application:

1) Ten (10) pages of original work, typed. No adaptations. Material to be considered may include short fiction, plays, and screenplays. A single work, or excerpts. Screenplay and play pages should be properly formatted; short fiction should be double-spaced (approximately 23-25 lines per page). (Please no poetry or journalism. The committee has found this type of writing not as helpful in determining successful candidates.)

2) A one-page essay (maximum 46 lines single-spaced) describing why you wish to participate in the Program.

3) PLEASE NO SPECIAL FOLDERS, BINDERS, ETC. Single sided, single column, 8 ½ x 11 stapled paper only. (Applications are copied for committee members, so binders, etc. just get in the way.)

This program is only offered to students with a declared major within the School of Communication who will be beginning their third year at Northwestern in the fall of 2008. Students must be available all six quarters. Students should also note that two of the CWMP courses can be counted toward your communications major. The other four are taken on top of the major.

Semi-finalists will be notified no later than Friday, April 24 and interviews will be shortly thereafter. Finalists will be notified on Friday, May 1. If you have any questions, email John Haas at (j-haas@northwestern.edu)
